Jurisdiction Claim No. 8888888

Claim Administrator File No. WX12345678

Date of Injury December 16, 2006

To All Interested Parties:

The Virginia Workers' Compensation Commission received notice that wage loss and/or permanent partial disability benefits have been paid in the case. A review of the Commission's file indicates that compensation due in the amount of $1721.15 varies from the amount of $1626.00 reported as having been paid. The difference in these two figures is reflected as an underpayment.

The parties are encouraged to review their records for possible discrepancies. If it is determined that an underpayment may exist, the insurance carrier should be contacted for further resolution of the issue.
